City Council Duties and Compensation

The Sedro-Woolley City Council is the legislative authority of the City of Sedro-Woolley. The City operates under a Mayor – Council form of government. The seven-member City Council serves as the legislative body of the City. The Council is responsible for setting policy, adopting the annual budget, adopting laws, determining the services to be provided and the funding levels for those services, and appointing citizens to its advisory boards and commissions.

The duties of a City Council Member will likely involve an average minimum commitment of 12 – 15 hours per month for preparation, participation, and attendance at various meetings and community activities. Beyond the broad duties previously mentioned, Council Member duties include, but are not limited to:

- Attendance is required at regular City Council meetings which are held on the first, second, and fourth Wednesday evenings of each month with the exception of the elimination of the meeting held the first Wednesday of the month in July and August. Meetings begin at 7:00 p.m. and can run to 9:00 p.m. and occasionally later. From time to time, the Council or Mayor may call special Council meetings to handle City business. Attendance is also required at Council retreats.
- Council Members are also expected to serve on regional boards and commissions, and to represent the City Council at various community functions. These meetings and functions can occur before or during business hours and may also occur during the evening or weekend.
- Some travel is expected locally, regionally, and/or within the State of Washington, involving various organizations of which the City of Sedro-Woolley is a member. Council Members may also, at their discretion, and within budget constraints, travel and attend training, education, and/or participate in other organizations at the local, regional, State, or in some instances, the national level. Travel, education, and training expenses for local, regional, State, and national activities are reimbursed in accordance with City policy applicable to all employees and City officials, subject to the budgetary limit set for each Council Member and for the City Council as a whole.

The monthly Council Member salary as of January 1, 2020 is $500.00 per month.

Interview Questions – August 26, 2020

Each candidate selected for an interview should come to the interview prepared to speak to the following or similar questions:

1. Why do you want to serve on the City Council?
2. What experiences, talents or skills do you bring to the Council and community that you would like to highlight?
3. Are there any regional issues or forums in which you have a particular interest or expertise? (e.g. transportation, human services, fiscal management, solid waste, parks and open space, etc.)
4. Do you want to serve on the City Council because of a particular local issue on which you want to work, or are your interests more broadly distributed?

The Council may ask additional questions of candidates during the interview.
